

SURVEY

ACG InterGrowth Conference 2018

37%

are more confident in the U.S. economy than at the start of 2018, when confidence was already soaring

40%

said their top concern in 2018 is cybersecurity; the #2 concern is access to skilled labor and #3 is board & workplace diversity

Number of respondents who said they were concerned about the impact of rising tariffs or a potential trade war in 2018 was

69%

65%

believe a recession is somewhat or very likely within the next 18 months